The pro se plaintiff, Jerry Gordon, is an inmate with the South Carolina Department of Corrections. He brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983¹ claiming medical malpractice and deliberate indifference to a serious medical need by the defendants in violation of the 8th Amendment.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action² has prepared a Report and Recommendation and opines that the complaint should be dismissed for failure to prosecute, in accordance with Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Magistrate Judge notes that the plaintiff was advised to keep the court apprised of his current address and that the plaintiff failed to do so when an order of the court mailed to the plaintiff was returned to the Clerk by the U.S. Postmaster.

² The Magistrate Judge's review is made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02. The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility to make a final determination remains with the court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report and Recommendation to which specific objection is made, and the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, or recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

The defendants have filed a motion for summary judgment. An order was then issued pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) notifying plaintiff of the summary dismissal procedure and possible consequences if he failed to adequately respond to the motion for summary judgment. That order was returned to the Clerk of Court as “undeliverable.”

The plaintiff was also advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on August 24, 2011. However, the plaintiff did not file any objections to the Report within the time limits prescribed. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

After a careful review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report and Recommendation, the court finds the Magistrate Judge’s recommendation proper and incorporated herein by reference. Accordingly, this action is dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute under Rule 41(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
